

Medical contraindication

- black skin
- pregnant women
- wounded, burned or irritated skin
- skin lesion which required medical attention
- risky areas (spots, birthmarks, warts, unhealed wounds, etc)
- moles: if they are located in the area to be treated, they should first be covered using the Patches/they comes with the device/
 - tattooed areas; cosmetic tattoo (for example, lip contour) or aesthetic tattoo regardless of colour
 - if you suffer from a skin disease (eczema, inflammations, acne, etc)
 - if you are undergoing photosensitizing treatment (consult your doctor)
 - if you have experienced skin pathologies in the past, you should consult your doctor before IPL treatment
- if you have experienced a sunburn within the past month